

EXPLORE BELVOIR

Once a month this Summer, slip away down quiet paths with MWR's Outdoor Recreation. Discover Fort Belvoir's serene Accotink Bay Wildlife Refuge which features over 1,315 acres of hardwood forest and marshland. Each hike will provide valuable earth-conscious insights along the way, courtesy of the Environmental Education Center.

SUNDAYS in 2010

MAY 23 | JUNE 27 | JULY 25
AUGUST 22 | SEPTEMBER 26

Participation is cost-free & includes a pocket-guide. Reservations are limited to 20 people, call now!
Outdoor Recreation, (703) 805-3969

Hikes depart from the Environmental Education Center at Tompkins Basin.

Beautiful to See

