Mobilization, Deployment & Family Readiness Program

Deployment support is a comprehensive process that ensures Soldiers, DA Civilians, and their families are better prepared and sustained throughout the deployment cycle. Our goal is to facilitate Soldier, DA Civilian, and Family well-being throughout the deployment cycle and beyond with a multitude of trainings and resources to include:

- Soldier Readiness Process (SRP)
- Family Readiness Group (FRG)
- Deployment Cycle Training (DCS)
- Operation Ready Materials
- Army Community Service (ACS)
- Army Family Team Building (AFTB)

Mobilization Deployment Services

Family assistance and support services will be provided to families of Active Component and Reserve Component (Reserves and National Guard) forces and emergency—essential civilians in support of military operations—deployment or mobilization and stability and support operations readiness (SSOs).
